The education at Manav Rachna University (MRU) aspires to not only bestow knowledge and skills, but also a positive attitudinal change.

"Na-asti Vidya sama chakshu, na asti satya sama tappa: Na-asti raag sama dukham, na asti tyaga sama sukham"

No vision is as powerful as the vision of knowledge, abiding by the truth is the foremost of all other austerities. There’s no pain bigger than the pain caused by desire, however, happiness gained by sacrifice (of desires) is the ultimate one.

Team MRU, strives to carve young minds with a bright vision of the future motivated by Integrity, Perseverance and Passion, so that they are able to make a difference in the work place. We put in an unswerving effort to make every student at Manav Rachna a “Pragmatic” and a “Good” human being. We ensure that every student is not only a mere success story, but an incomparable example of achieving self actualization and becoming a front runner in all the realms of life.

Latest World Bank Projections indicate that India is the fastest growing economy in the World. In fact, we are on the threshold of achieving a double digit growth in foreseeable future. This implies that we are on our way to an increased spend in the Social Sector with its consequential impact on employment generation and reduction in poverty; thus making us a World Class Economy characterized by 3Es, i.e. Efficiency in quality, Effectiveness in cost, Excellence in outcome.

The Yoga Sutra of Patanjali says, “When you are inspired by some great purpose, some extraordinary projects, all your thoughts break their bounds. Your mind transcends limitations, your consciousness expands in every direction, and you find yourself in a new, great and wonderful world”.

Our biggest competitive edge is our Human Resource. 71% or 742 million Indians are below 35 year. This is a great opportunity for all of us as the responsible citizens of India and not just for the government. So, let us “Think in India, “Make in India” and “Make for the World.” At Manav Rachna Educational Institutions, we are working on this mission as the business environment demands a new cadre of professionals with a global outlook, yet with a deep rooted value system springing from our vast cultural heritage and glorious past.

With this paradigm, Manav Rachna University has been sensitively proactive in realizing this need. Anatomically, the culture at MRU is marked by highly traditional ethos whereas physiologically it is originated by global perspectives. The programme structure, teaching methodology and inimitable industry interaction with the focus on attitude, behavioral skills and global orientation have been the key features of our educational philosophy.

Continuous learning is not a choice in today’s business environment but a necessity. It is a challenge for the management education to keep pace with the ongoing dynamics, which has necessitated a total metamorphosis. The Team MRU is committed to update and revise the course curriculum in tune with the dynamic needs of the business world thereby abridging the gap between the “desired” and the “produced”.

The way MRU develops human capital for the industry is not only suitable for today or tomorrow, but also for times to come. We instill in our students that “Apraapyam naama nehaasti dheerasya vyavasaayinah,” i.e “There is nothing unattainable to the one who has courage and who works hard”.

The Faculty of engineering is committed to increase its research activities by focusing on engineering-led multidisciplinary growth areas that target several global challenges, including machine learning, future manufacturing, internet of things, energy harvesting, cyber data and urban energy systems.

In today's world of specialization, our existing engineering curriculum incorporates latest trends such as Machine Learning, Digital Transformation, Cyber-physical systems, Internet of Things, Embedded Systems, Smart Manufacturing processes & Advanced Automation techniques.

To keep pace with the evolution of these ‘smart factories’ requires highly skilled and nimble engineers to manage the increasing complexity and shorter mind-to-market product cycles. In today's world of specialization, the conventional Mechanical Engineering curriculum incorporates specific areas of focus such as design: manufacturing, thermal, renewable etc. needs to be given a relook. To tap into this potential demand, Institution proposes to introduce new specialization module for Mechanical Engineering students in the area of Manufacturing and Automation. Advanced knowledge of automation techniques such as robotics, 3D printing, CNC, EDM, Smart Manufacturing Processes, Production and Development along with relevant software technologies would be part of the specialization course. These additional specializations would be aimed to give our students a competitive edge especially in industries such as Auto, Auto Ancillaries, Telecom, Railways, Aerospace, Heavy Engineering Industries etc.

The above proposal to offer specialization in Smart Manufacturing and Automation to the Mechanical Engineering students is in coherence with aim of the current government to develop skilled manpower which is ready to be employed in various sectors of the economy especially manufacturing to boost India’s manufacturing sector. Smart Manufacturing techniques is the need of the hour and we need to adopt to these new methods as early as possible.
The Faculty of Applied Sciences comprises three departments: Physics, Chemistry and Mathematics. It is committed to excellence in education and research. The faculty has strong core curriculum complemented by a basket of electives. It strives to create and sustain an environment for learning, enquiry and generation of new ideas to aid the education of future engineers and science graduates.

The faculty of Applied Sciences takes pride in its decorated faculty members, who are not only groomed in premier institutes of the country but also are highly experienced, dedicated to their respective specialized thrust areas, actively engaged in quality research and continuous upgradation of their pedagogical skills and they firmly believe in establishing democratic relationship with their students as well. No wonder, the students are placed in companies of national and international repute like Agilent Technologies with a highest package of 8.65 LPA.

The pedagogical philosophy of the faculty is based on ‘Learning by Practicing’ strategy. It facilitates the students to develop strong fundamentals of the subject(s) and the skills required for solving scientific, technical, analytical and mathematical problems. The same is achieved through the well-defined teaching and learning process that includes problem solving sessions, open discussions during tutorials, seminars, workshop, projects etc. The faculty equips the students with latest techniques for solving the problems manually as well as with the help of software. The knowledge gained through laboratory work forms a major component while preparing future professionals. The curriculum emphasizes the development of scientific temperament, critical thinking, data acquisition and evaluation skills along with effective communication and collaborative approach to problem solving.
